Please be advised, however, that even these time periods may not be sufficient for issuance, service, and return of the documents. The Department advises that requests be made as soon as possible after the notice of the proceeding is received. Also, the failure to obtain documents or secure a witness's attendance, resulting from inadequate time, might not be sufficient grounds to continue a hearing before a Board.

The subpoena will be issued on the basis of the information provided by the party who requests the subpoena. The Department will not undertake to correct incorrect information or supplement incomplete information provided. The Department assumes no responsibility for delays or failure of service caused by such incorrect or incomplete information. Furthermore, the Department cannot assure or guarantee issuance and completion of service by the return date.

If service is to be made by a private process server or by an agency or entity other than the sheriff's office where the person or custodian is to be served, those arrangements are the sole responsibility of the requesting party. The Department must be made aware of these arrangements at the time the subpoena request is made.
